The Anniversary of the Church Dedication

SAINT LUKE CHURCH

A warm welcome to all who gather in the name of Christ this morning. If you are looking for a church home, we hope you will consider Saint Luke Church.

Please enter the church using the Courtyard entrance.

Out of an abundance of caution everyone is required to wear a mask in the church and during the service.

Everyone must sign in and have their temperature taken, which will not be recorded. Please go right to your seat after you have signed in.

There will be no singing by the congregation and responses and prayers should be spoken quietly.

Sharing of the Peace will be done in place and without contact. A nod toward the neighbor, a bow of the head, a wave or other signs of mutual spiritual respect can be used.

Following the service an usher will dismiss you from your seat. Please exit immediately. Pastor will greet people in the courtyard, weather permitting.

Free parking is available in the parking garage behind the church. Enter from Melrose St. (one block north of Belmont).

If there is anything else we can do to assist your worship experience, please let the ushers know.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 84

J Brahms
How love - ly is Your dwe - lling place O
Lord of hosts O Lord of hosts

How lovely, Lord, is your dwelling place;

I long to be in your house.

My heart and soul sing out for joy,

Sing out to the living God.

Even the sparrow finds a home,

The swallow builds a nest.

Yes, there at the altar they care for their young,

O Lord, my King and my God.

Happy are they who dwell in your house,

Who praise you all the day long.

And happy are they who journey to Zion,

Who enter the presence of God. Refrain

O Lord, I long to be in your house,

If only for a day,

For one day is better than a thousand elsewhere,

O Lord, my King and my God.

The Lord is a sun, the Lord is a shield,
No need the Lord will withhold.
O happy are they who trust in the Lord,
Whose trust is in God alone. Refrain

Second Reading

1 Peter 2:1-9

The reading concludes: The word of the Lord.

Stand HOLY GOSPEL

Please turn to face the procession as it moves to the center of the church. The congregation sings “We All One in Mission,” stanzas 1 & 2

We all are one in mission, we all are one in call, our varied gifts united by Christ, the Lord of all.
A single great commission compels us from above to plan and work together that all might know Christ’s love.

We all are called for service, to witness in God’s name.
Our ministries are different; our purpose is the same:
to touch the lives of others with God’s surprising grace,
so ev’ry folk and nation may feel God’s warm embrace.

Proclaiming Christ in this Place

The first church building was built in 1884 and dedicated on October 5, 1884. In 1888, the transepts and the apse were added to the old church. Following a disastrous fire which destroyed much of the old structure, the church was rededicated in November of 1899

A new church office and classroom building were built and dedicated between the old church and school in 1949.

In 1960, the old church of Saint Luke was replaced on the same site by the present structure. On October 1, 1960, the new church was dedicated to the Glory of God and the service of humankind.
