Stand Confession and Forgiveness

In the name of the Father, and of the + Son,
 and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open,
 all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid:
 Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
 by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence for reflection and self-examination.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we are captive to sin
 and cannot free ourselves.
 We have sinned against you
 in thought, word, and deed,
 by what we have done
 and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
 we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
 For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will
 and walk in your ways,
 to the glory of your holy name. Amen

In the mercy of almighty God,
Jesus Christ was given to die for us,
and for his sake God forgives us all our sins.
As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you
the entire forgiveness of all your sins,
in the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Sit Hymn Awake, My Soul, and with the Sun
Awake, my soul, and with the sun thy daily stage of duty run;
shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise to pay thy morning sacrifice.

Direct, control, suggest, this day, all I design or do or say, that all my pow'rs, with all their might, in thy sole glory may unite.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise god above, ye heav'nly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Greeting
The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

Let us pray...
The congregation responds: Amen

WORD

First Reading Jeremiah 15:15-21
The reading concludes: The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Silence

Psalm 26:1-8
Give judgment for me, O Lord, for I have lived with integrity;
I have trusted in the Lord and have not faltered.

Test me, O Lord, and try me;
examine my heart and my mind.

For your steadfast love is before my eyes;
I have walked faithfully with you.

I have not sat with the worthless,
nor do I consort with the deceitful.

I have hated the company of evildoers;
I will not sit down with the wicked.

I will wash my hands in innocence, O Lord,
that I may go in procession round your altar,
singing aloud a song of thanksgiving
and recounting all your wonderful deeds.

Lord, I love the house in which you dwell and the place where your glory abides.

Second Reading

Romans 12:9-21

The reading concludes: The word of the Lord.

Hymn of the Day Oh, that the Lord Would Guide My Ways

Oh, that the Lord would guide my ways to keep his statutes still!
Oh, that my God would grant me grace to know and do his will!

Assist my soul, too apt to stray, a stricter watch to keep;
And should I e'er forget your way, restore your wand'ring sheep.

Stand Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.

was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into hell.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen

Sit Communion

Communion will be through use of the bread only. The pastor will consecrate a chalice of wine and enough wafers to serve those at worship and those who will receive the consecrated bread during the week. Ushers will lead us to the altar, socially distanced, to receive the sacrament. We will receive and consume the bread from a paten by a communion assistant wearing gloves and saying: "The Body of Christ for you." Then stop by the chalice, bow and hear the pastor say: "The Blood of Christ for you."

Today: Sundays after Pentecost – Lectionary 22

Our long liturgical season of growth continues. On the altar, the pale green shoots begin their steady transformation into the lush growth and vibrant colors this season will eventually produce. As the strips are added across the altar, they will form a cross that will ultimately enfold the entire space with every color of the growing season. We, the baptized congregation, are like these diverse strips: together we form the Body of Christ—one body composed of many diverse members.

Introduction to the Day

The prophet Jeremiah speaks of the incurable wound of his suffering, yet finds in God's words the delight of his heart. When Peter doesn't grasp Jesus' words about suffering, Jesus tells the disciples they will find their lives in losing them. Such sacrificial love is described by Paul when he urges us to associate with the lowly and not repay evil with evil. In worship we gather as a community that we might offer ourselves for the sake of our suffering world.

Thank you - Timothy Colón-Geistlinger

Tim Colón-Geistlinger, a graduate of Saint Luke Academy, member of Saint Luke Church and service participant in Sunday services leaves us this Sunday to begin a teaching parish assignment as part of his study for the Ministry in Word and Sacrament. Tim will spend this time at Christ Lutheran Church in Albany Park. We are grateful for his ministry here and look forward to seeing him soon. Please take a moment today to wish him well.

Abrahamson Education Fund

On Tim's behalf a payment to the Lutheran School of Theology has been made from the Abrahamson Education Fund.

The Saint Luke Academy Adopt-a-Family scholarship program has received several donations this summer. Academy parents who participated in a preschool reading program donated $500 toward this fund. Another alumni, representing the class of 1958, donated $5000 in memory of alum, Bill Schmidt. Finally, a church member donated $13,500 in honor of his mother, who had a deep fondness for Lutheran Education. We are deeply thankful to all of these benefactors who specifically kicked off our new scholarship program.

There have been other donations over the summer as well, from church members and school families totaling $600. A very big thank you to all who are supporting Saint Luke Academy.

Please contact Donna Beck at principal@stlukechicago.org or donate online via <https://donorbox.org/scholarship2021>.
